

PRACTICE OWNER'S GUIDE

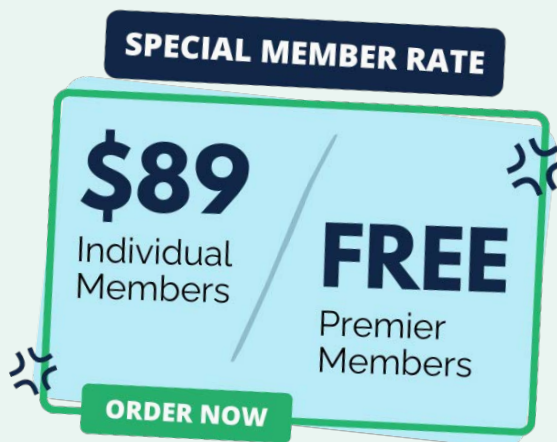

CONTENTS

Section I: Building a Thriving Business

- Business Registration and Taxes
- Insurance Considerations
- What is new hire reporting?
- Georgia Employment Contracts
- Employee Benefits
- Human Resources (HR)
- Privacy
- Financial Management for a Veterinary Hospital
- Investment Considerations for Veterinary Practice Owners
- Standard Operating Procedures
- Resources for Practice Management
- Resources for Building Team Culture
- Resources for Communication
- Workplace Dynamics and Culture
- Core Values
- Psychological Safety
- Mentorship
- Professionalism and Positive Team Dynamics
- Maximizing Your Team
- The Importance of Title Protection
- ADA Responsibilities
- Family Planning
- Professional Organizations
- Thriving > Surviving
- Developing and Sustaining High-Performance Work Teams
- Veterinary Technicians and Occupational Burnout
- Leadership
- Mitigating Burnout
- Closing a Business

Section II: Navigating Regulatory Requirements

- Veterinary Licensing in GA
- Veterinary Technician Licensing in GA
- Veterinary Assistants
- Scope of Practice for Veterinary Techs & Veterinary Assistants
- Navigating a Board Complaint
- Explanation of Complaint Process
- General Licensing Requirements
- Investigations
- Pharmacy
- DEA License
- Security & Diversion
- Tips To Stay Compliant
- Radiology Regulations
- Required Training
- Employment Law
- Rabies Laws in Georgia
- Health Certificates and Animal Travel Regulations
- Pet Travel Information for USDA Accredited Veterinarians
- Reportable Animal Diseases
- Disaster Planning

ORDER YOUR GUIDE NOW

Available to non-members at $250.